A. Part of the east elevation of the VICE-ROY'S HOUSE.
B. A chateu by the south portico fountain of the VICE-ROY'S HOUSE. Note the back-off of the chateu below.
C. Elevation of the north front, showing the north entrance of the VICE-ROY'S HOUSE.
D. The east elevation of the Viceroy's original House. Actually the chateu is not surrounded by spires, and the dome is smaller.

A. The shaft of the Colonn Fountain in the South Fountain Court.
B. Section through a turrett of the dome in the Durbar Hall in the VICE-ROY'S HOUSE.